(1) SWOT analysis to identify bottlenecks, gaps and opportunities and develop recommendations for adoption and scaling out of SLM building on identified landsacpes on local level based on the results of China LADA and China desertification monitoring;

In selected county in Inner Mongolia, the expert group will conduct SWOT analysis to identify bottlenecks, gaps and opportunities in the selected landscapes and land use, provide advices on implementing the selected SLM best practices.

*(2)*Training of techniques and local consultation on approaches

Hold one workshop to conduct SLM best practices training and capacity building for local level stakeholders   to prepare   implementation of SLM.

This work will be finished before November, 2018